21.2 Nothing in this section shall prevent the Development Officer or Municipal Planning Commission, as applicable, from issuing a development permit or approving a subdivision if the Development Officer or Municipal Planning Commission is satisfied that there is no risk to persons or property or that these concerns will be met by appropriate engineering measures or other mitigating measures and approvals from provincial and/or federal agencies have been obtained, as applicable.

SECTION 22 NUMBER OF DWELLING UNITS ON A LOT

22.1 No person shall construct or locate, or cause to be constructed or located, more than one dwelling unit on a lot except when permitted by the land use district or unless authorized by the Development Authority through the issuance of a development permit.

SECTION 24 NON-CONFORMING BUILDINGS AND USES

- 24.1 If a development permit has been issued on or before the day on which this bylaw or a land use amendment bylaw comes into force in a municipality and the bylaw would make the development in respect of which the permit was issued a non-conforming use or non-conforming building, the development permit continues in effect in spite of the coming into force of the bylaw, pursuant to section 643 of the MGA.
- 24.2 A non-conforming use of land or a building may be continued but, if that use is discontinued for a period of six (6) consecutive months or more, any future use of the land or building must conform to the Land Use Bylaw then in effect, pursuant to section 643 of the MGA.

- 24.7 Questions regarding the interpretation and application of Sections 24.3 to 24.6 shall, if necessary, be referred to the Municipal Planning Commission for interpretation and a decision.

SECTION 60: DESIGN STANDARDS

60.1 APPLICABILITY

Design standards relate to the ways that buildings, lots, streets, blocks and neighbourhoods may relate to one another and how they may be laid out overall. These standards provide direction to existing and proposed subdivision and development with a focus on balancing the conventional requirements of this bylaw with a degree of flexibility that is intended to:

- (1) Promote a development approach that balances the traditional focus on the automobile with recognition for people as the main users of the built environment.
- (2) Be applicable to existing subdivision and development as much as is practical given the context-specific constraints that are present in already built-up areas of the City; and
- (3) Be applicable to proposed subdivision and development in a comprehensive manner.

The design standards contained in this section shall be applicable to all land use districts unless otherwise stated.

60.2 BUILDING SCALE

60.2.1 OVERVIEW

The building scale relates directly and indirectly to the lot scale and takes into account, but is not limited to such factors as the:

- (1) Relative size and visual interest provided by the building (articulation and scale);
- (2) Number and/or size and placement of windows and doors facing private and public outdoor spaces such as but not limited to parking lots, patios, pedestrian and cyclist linkages, and streets (transparency);
- (3) Building design including exterior materials and color choices as related to adjacent and area development (character); and
- (4) The orientation and placement of the building and its entrances in relation to required parking and loading areas and pedestrian and cyclist linkages leading to the lot and building (orientation).

In addition to all other applicable requirements of this bylaw, redeveloped and newly constructed buildings are subject to the standards of this section.

60.2.2 ARTICULATION

(1) General Requirements:

- (a) the façade of principal buildings shall not be at the same depth of setback for the façade's total width;
- (b) façade articulation shall be achieved through the use of design techniques such as but not limited to:
 - (i) stepping out or recessing portions of the façade;
 - (ii) using accent colors and/or textures;
 - (iii) planting vegetation along the building edges;
- (c) principal entrances shall be articulated through the use of design techniques listed in (1)(b) of this sub-section; and

Figure 60.2.1: an example of façade articulation as per 60.2.2(1) of this section.

- (d) should a building be built to the maximum allowable height of 12 m (39.4 ft) as measured to the eaves, the third story or equivalent height in single or two story buildings with high ceilings or false fronts, be stepped back a minimum of 1.83 m (6 ft).
- ### (2) Commercial and Industrial development:
- (a) commercial buildings and industrial buildings that provide administrative and/or retail space shall orient the façade of such administrative and/or retail space to the street, with any part of the building used for manufacturing or any other non-retail commercial or industrial activity to be oriented behind the façade; and

- (b) should blank walls (not containing any transparent surface) of the principal building be oriented to a flankage yard, the visual monotony shall be broken up with linear vegetation such as but not limited to tree species such as columnar aspen.

Figure 60.2.2: an example of articulating blank walls with plantings as per 60.2.2(2)(b) of this section.

60.2.3 SCALE

Key features of the principal building such as but not limited to primary entrances should be scaled to suit the pedestrian.

60.2.4 TRANSPARENCY

- (1) The façade of the principal building shall be made up of a minimum of 30 percent transparent surfaces;

Figure 60.2.3: an example of approximately 30 percent transparent surface as per 60.2.4(1) of this section.

- (2) Should any side of the principal building other than the façade face a street or other public right-of-way, transparent surface should be incorporated; and

- (3) Transparent surfaces shall be oriented towards key access linkages to the lot and the principal building, including but not limited to parking areas, sidewalks, pathways, trails, bicycle racks, and outdoor amenity spaces.

60.2.5 CHARACTER

- (1) All development shall complement and enhance features of the adjacent lots and the overall existing or desired character of the street and area, based on approved statutory or non-statutory plans and/or to the discretion of the Development Authority, through investigation of existing:
 - (a) building heights, scale, massing, form, orientation, and roof slopes;
 - (b) architectural features and exterior finishes;
 - (c) entrances, walkways and linkages;
 - (d) parking and vehicular access layout;
 - (e) landscaping and outdoor amenity spaces; and
 - (f) any other matters deemed appropriate by the Development Authority.

60.2.6 ORIENTATION

- (1) General requirements:
 - (a) the façade and primary entrance of the principal building shall be oriented to the street; and
 - (b) parking areas shall, where practical, be oriented to the side and rear of the lot.
- (2) Non-residential land use districts:
 - (a) loading areas and service entrances shall be to the side and rear of the lot; and
 - (b) the principal building should be oriented in such a way that loading areas and service entrances are not visible from the street.

60.3 LOT SCALE

60.3.1 OVERVIEW

The intention of this section is to provide a balance between the highest possible function of the lot and respect the relationship that lots have to one another, the development that is to occur on the lots, and the ways in which both relate to adjacent public space.

(1) General Requirements:

- (a) through lots or double frontage lots shall not be permitted except where essential to separate residential development from traffic arterials, to overcome specific disadvantages of topography and orientation or if essential to the operation of an industrial use;
- (b) in such cases, as deemed by the Development Authority, where through lots may be permitted, the primary access to the lot shall be provided only on the lower classification street;

Figure 60.3.1: an illustrative guide to lot types as per 60.3.1(1) of this section.

- (c) flag lots shall not be permitted to be less than 0.2 ha (0.5 acres) and shall meet the following design requirements:
 - (i) the flag lot directly accesses a local street;
 - (ii) the aggregate width of the narrowest point of the lot is 6.1 m (20 ft);
- (d) all lots shall have side lot lines at right angles to street lines or radial side lot lines to curved streets. Unusual lot shapes shall be avoided unless it is required to overcome specific disadvantages of topography and orientation;
- (e) the lot line common to the street shall be the front lot line. All lots shall face the front lot line and a similar lot across the street;

- (f) all lots shall have one lot line adjacent to a public roadway other than a lane;

Figure 60.3.2: an example of a common lot line as per 60.3.1(e) of this section.

- (g) where feasible, lots shall be oriented in such a way that the rear lot line does not abut the side lot line of any adjacent lot(s), excepting out lots adjacent to collector roads, which may be oriented parallel to the collector and thereby placing the side of the lot line of the lots adjacent to the collector adjacent to the rear of the lots facing the local street;
 - (h) no lot shall be created that does not meet the minimum requirements of this bylaw, unless such a lot has been permitted by an adopted statutory plan and the use and maintenance of that lot has been specified; and
 - (i) at the time of subdivision, all corner lots shall dedicate clear vision triangles, in accordance with Section 3 of this Schedule, as right-of-way.
- (2) Residential land use districts:
- (a) residential lots shall be longer than they are wide, except in instances where:
 - (i) corner lot orientation makes this unachievable;
 - (ii) the lot is intended for multiple residential dwelling development and makes use of the consolidation of a number of residential lots that would have previously been suitable only for lower density dwelling types such as single family, duplex, and townhouse dwellings.

60.4 STREET SCALE

60.4.1 OVERVIEW

The intention of this section is to ensure a balanced approach to the use of streets is achieved. That is, the vehicle is not the only user of the street and therefore the needs of the vehicle should be balanced against those choosing active modes of transportation. Street scale design should consider, account for, and where possible enhance the level of comfort for active modes of transportation.

(1) General requirements:

- (a) where practical and to reduce potential points of conflict between vehicles and pedestrians, vehicular access directly to a lot from the street should be shared with adjacent lots that may also require the same type of access;
- (b) on streets with sidewalks and other forms of active transportation rights-of-way, traffic calming measures should be incorporated such as but not limited to:
 - (i) boulevard landscaping;
 - (ii) reduced corner radii;
 - (iii) intersectional and mid-block bulb-outs at key crossing points;
 - (iv) vertical and horizontal deflection;
 - (v) partial street closure;
 - (vi) median barriers incorporating hard and soft landscaping;
 - (vii) artificial lane narrowing and choke points; and
 - (viii) any other measures as deemed appropriate by the Development Authority;

Figure 60.4.1: an example of shared access as per 60.4.1(a) of this section.

- (c) traffic calming measures should be incorporated at 30 m (98.4 ft) intervals for local streets and 50 m (164 ft) intervals for collectors;
- (d) traffic calming measures for arterial streets should be determined on a case-by-case basis;

- (e) traffic calming measures, when incorporated, shall be designed to ensure the access for emergency and protective services vehicles is not negatively impacted; and
 - (f) all proposed traffic calming measures shall be reviewed by and to the satisfaction of the City's engineering department.
- (2) Residential land use districts:
- (a) where possible, street design in residential land use districts and areas where residential districts are the predominate district, should avoid cul-de-sacs that do not provide a through-route for active modes of transportation.

60.5 BLOCK SCALE

60.5.1 OVERVIEW

The block scale relates broadly to the lot, street and neighbourhood scales. Block scale design can influence the number of choices automobiles and active modes of transportation have in moving through the urban environment, the distance between destinations, and the overall level of connection of the block to adjacent and surround blocks and neighbourhoods.

The intention of this section is to provide general standards with a focus on the:

- (1) Number of route choices for motor vehicles and active modes (permeability); and
- (2) Distance between destinations (connectivity).

60.5.2 PERMEABILITY & CONNECTIVITY

- (1) General requirements:
 - (a) the maximum dimensions of a block, measured from the centre of the street, should be no greater than 500 m (1640 ft);

Figure 60.5.1: maximum block dimensions as per 60.5.2(1)(a) of this section.

- (b) the length and width of the block should be sufficient to accommodate two (2) tiers of lots, except where a single row of lots back onto an arterial street; and
- (c) rear laneways should be incorporated into block design where possible.

60.6 NEIGHBOURHOOD/AREA SCALE

60.6.1 OVERVIEW

The neighbourhood or more generally, the area scale relates broadly to the block and street scales. The ability of the neighbourhood/area to relate to adjacent and surrounding development is based on the level of connectivity to other areas, and the overall street layout that is made up of the prevailing block patterns.

This section is intended to provide general standards for the integration of new and existing neighbourhoods/areas, which may result in less traffic congestion at the 'choke' points resulting from conventional neighbourhood/area design.

- (1) General requirements:
 - (a) new neighbourhoods/areas should provide:
 - (i) as many through routes as are practical;
 - (ii) integration into the prevailing block pattern and street network of existing adjacent areas;

- (2) Residential land use districts:
- (a) new neighbourhood development shall consider the prevailing block pattern and street network of existing adjacent development when identifying points of neighbourhood/area access;
 - (b) new neighbourhood/area development shall incorporate as many points of access for the neighbourhood/area as are practical; and
 - (c) a mix of collector and arterial roads should provide access not only within the neighbourhood, but to and from the neighbourhood.

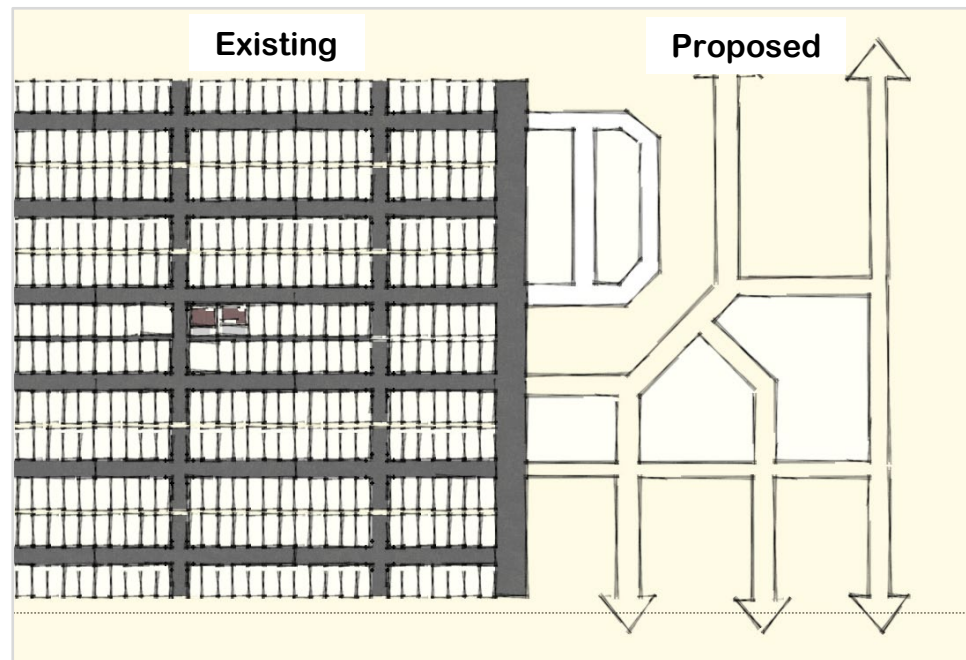

Figure 60.6.1: an example of an existing neighbourhood being considered when new neighbourhood design is proposed as per 60.6.1(2) of this section.

60.7 EXCEPTIONS

The requirements of this section may be waived should the Development Authority deem any of the requirements to be unachievable due to a material impact they may have on the development potential of a site.

As a part of the process of determining whether a requirement of this section may have a material impact on the development potential of a site, the Development Authority may, at the sole cost of the developer, require proof in the form of an analysis and recommendation completed by a qualified professional such as but not limited to an architect, engineer or planner that is a registered member in good standing with the respective professional organizations of Alberta and/or Canada.

SECTION 61: EXCEPTIONS TO BUILDING HEIGHT

- 61.1 The maximum building height of 12 m (39.4 ft) is to be measured to the eaves line of all buildings; and
- 61.2 exceptions to the maximum building height of 12 m (39.4 ft) are limited to architectural accents such as but not limited to steeples, parapet walls and false fronts that do not increase the actual height to the eaves line as indicated in 5(1) above.

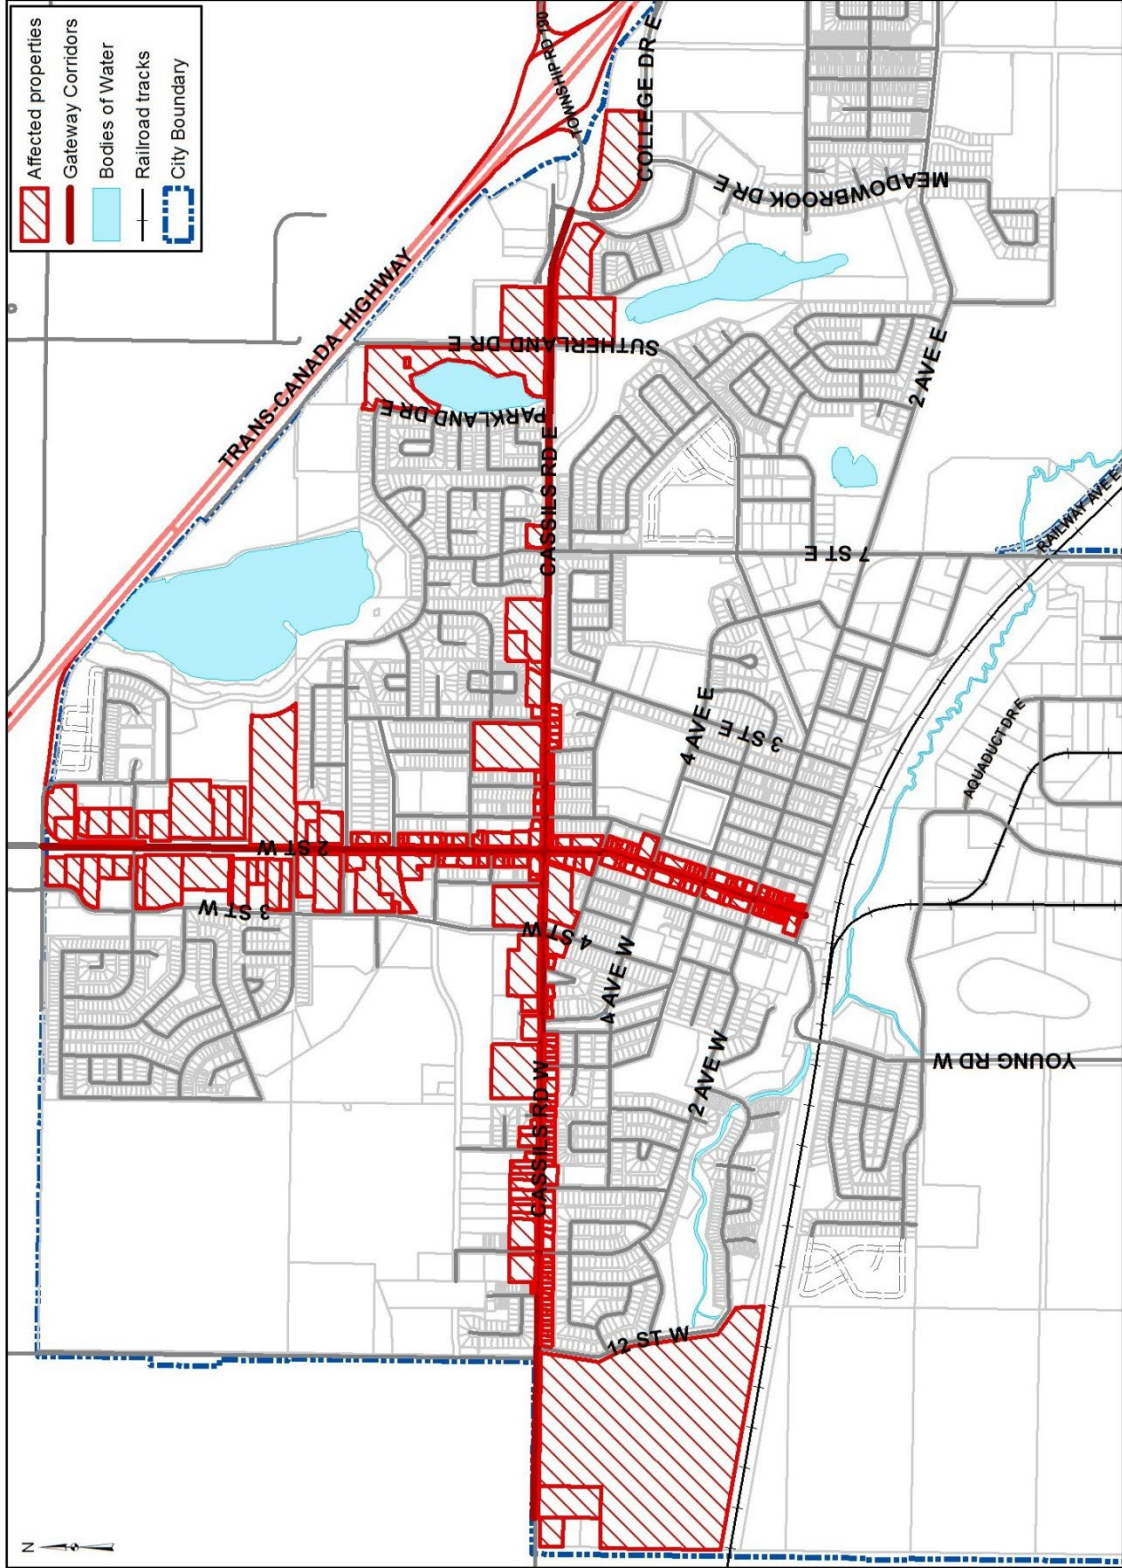

SECTION 62: FENCES, PRIVACY WALLS AND GATES

- 62.1 The maximum height of fences, privacy walls and gates shall be:
 - (a) Front yards: 1 m (3.3 ft)
 - (b) Side and rear yards: 2 m (6.6 ft)
 - (c) in Clear Vision Zones (corner lots only): 0.8 m (2.6 ft)
- 62.2 Fences or privacy walls that make use of barbed or razor wire or similar deterrents shall only be permitted in Commercial and Industrial districts and only if the barbed or razor wire is placed at a minimum height of 1.8 m (5.9 ft); and
- 62.3 Vegetation, including but not limited to hedges, when used primarily for the purposes that a fence or privacy wall would otherwise serve, shall be required to meet the same height requirements as prescribed in 6(1) above, unless otherwise approved by the Development Authority.

SECTION 63: GATEWAYS AND CORRIDORS

63.1 APPLICABILITY

The requirements of this section are in addition to any other section of this bylaw, and apply to all areas identified on the accompanying map, and any other areas as determined by the Development Authority.

63.2 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- (1) Exterior building materials shall be durable and of a high quality;
- (2) Highly reflective exterior building materials are discouraged;
- (3) The design, massing, layout and orientation of buildings should complement the existing or desired character of the area as described in any applicable approved statutory or non-statutory plan and/or to the discretion of the Development Authority. In addition, the following standards apply:
 - (a) the articulation of all street-oriented building facades shall be achieved through the incorporation of architectural elements such as but not limited to balconies, canopies, bay windows, parapets, varying textures, projections and recesses, awnings, and an overall increase in visual interest;
 - (b) a high degree of transparency should also be incorporated into street-oriented building facades, through the placement of doors and windows at a minimum of 30 percent coverage of the street-oriented building facades;
 - (c) buildings shall be oriented and the massing designed to highlight the interface between individual lots and the street, including, where possible, the minimization of building setbacks from the fronts of lots and the placement of parking and loading areas to the sides and rear of lots; and
- (4) All vents, gutters, downspouts, flashing and electrical conduits shall be the same color as the adjacent surface, unless acting as an accent to the overall color scheme of the building exterior.

63.3 SIGNAGE

In addition to the requirements of Schedule 5 (Signage), signage in gateways and corridors shall be architecturally integrated with surrounding development and should complement the existing or desired character of the area as described in any applicable approved statutory or non-statutory plan and/or to the discretion of the Development Authority.

63.4 TRANSPORTATION DESIGN, PARKING AND LOADING

The design and layout of transportation rights-of-way should minimize the potential for traffic safety issues including but not limited to congestion and points of conflict between different modes of motorized and active transportation. The following standards shall apply:

- (1) Accesses to individual lots shall be shared, where possible, to minimize points of conflict between automobiles and active modes of transportation;
- (2) Parking lots shall be shared where possible;
- (3) Parking lots should be located in the rear and/or side yards of lots;

- (4) Loading areas shall be located along the rear or side of the building and visually screened from the street through the use of fencing, landscaping, and the orientation of the principal building; and
- (5) Pedestrian crossings shall be included at every crossing including points of vehicular access to individual lots, and at main points of pedestrian traffic in parking lots and clearly marked and stylized through means such as but not limited to texturing, painting and signage to complement the existing or desired character of the area as described in any applicable approved statutory or non-statutory plan and/or to the discretion of the Development Authority.

63.5 LANDSCAPING

Gateways and corridors are of high visual value to the City and therefore, in addition to the requirements of Section 67 (Landscaping) of this Schedule, the following requirements shall apply:

- (1) Development applications in gateways and corridors shall be accompanied by landscaping plans prepared in accordance with this bylaw;
- (2) Landscaping in gateways and corridors shall complement and enhance the existing landscaping on adjacent lots, along the street and in the area;
- (3) All areas of a lot not covered by buildings, outdoor storage, pedestrian parking or vehicular movement or any other structures necessary for the approved use, shall be landscaped;
- (4) Existing soft landscaping retained on a site may be considered as full or partial fulfilment of the required landscaping;
- (5) Where space on the lot permits, trees and shrubs should be grouped;
- (6) All boulevard areas shall be the developer's responsibility to landscape and shall incorporate trees and shrubs, the minimum number and type of which shall be at the discretion of the Development Authority;
- (7) Groupings of trees and shrubs should be located at the main entrance to the lot and the principal building;
- (8) Landscaping shall screen structures such as but not limited to transformers, utility boxes, outdoor storage areas, trash enclosures and generators and shall make use of trees and shrubs and fencing, if permitted, of a density that blocks a minimum of ninety (90) percent of the structures from view;
- (9) As an alternative to the screening requirements that make use of trees and shrubs, as set out in this sub-section, a solid fence or wall may, at the discretion of the Development Authority, be provided; and
- (10) Should a solid fence or wall be permitted in lieu of trees and shrubs, for the sole purpose of meeting 63.5(9) above, all other landscaping requirements in this sub-section and Section 67 of this Schedule shall be met.

SECTION 64: GRADING, EXCAVATION, STRIPPING & STOCKPILING

64.1 APPLICABILITY

Grading, excavating, stripping and stockpiling of materials associated with a lot or lots shall be required to meet the standards of this section and any other applicable section of this bylaw.

64.2 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- (1) Any grading, excavation, stripping and/or stockpiling of materials required during the process of development on a lot shall be carried out in the shortest amount of time possible and shall minimize potential negative impacts to adjacent lots and the street on which the development is occurring, including but not limited to:
 - (a) noise, odour and dust;
 - (b) any required changes to pre-development traffic routes, patterns and access to individual lots; and
 - (c) lot drainage;
- (2) Any grading, excavation, stripping and/or stockpiling of materials required during the process of development shall not, under any circumstance, alter the drainage of the site on which such work is being carried out to a point where runoff exits the lot and enters an adjacent lot;
- (3) The stockpiling of materials removed through grading, stripping and/or excavating shall be contained on the lot on which the development is taking place, unless otherwise approved by the Development Authority;
- (4) In the case of a proposal to excavate, strip, grade, and/or stockpile a detailed plan may be required for an individual lot and shall be required for multiple lots and shall contain the following information:

- (8) A comprehensive landscaping plan may be requested from the Development Authority.

SECTION 66: INTERFACE AREAS

66.1 APPLICABILITY

The requirements of this section apply to all circumstances where a non-residential development is proposed to be situated adjacent to a residential development, including mixed-use developments containing residential dwelling units above or behind non-residential development proposed adjacent to residential-only development.

66.2 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- (1) Development in interface areas shall complement and enhance features of the adjacent lots and the overall existing or desired character of the street and area, based on approved statutory or non-statutory plans and/or to the discretion of the Development Authority, through investigation of existing:

The mechanisms proposed for impact mitigation shall be considered the responsibility of the developer and shall be developed and implemented to the satisfaction of the Development Authority and
- (3) In interface areas site elements such as loading bays, storage areas, trash enclosures, transformers, generators and similar features shall be sited in such a way they are not visible from public rights-of-way and visibility from adjacent lots is minimized as much as is reasonably achievable.

66.3 SIGNAGE

- (1) Certain types of signage are prohibited in interface areas, including signage that is animated, electronic moving image/script LED, flashing, or rotating;

- (2) The illumination of signage shall only be permitted if is not internal to the sign, does not make use of neon gas, and meets the requirements of Section 71 of this Schedule; and
- (3) Signage in interface areas shall complement and enhance the existing or desired character of the street and area.

66.4 PARKING AND LOADING

- (1) For multi-unit residential and non-residential development in interface areas off-street parking shall be:

The developer will be encouraged to provide trees in a ratio of one tree per 35 square metres of total landscaped area provided on a site. As an alternative, shrubs may be planted for each 35 square metres of landscaped area provided on a site so long as the design incorporates trees along the property line;
- (3) On corner lots, in addition to the landscaping required in the front yard as identified in 10.5(2) above, the developer shall be responsible for landscaping the municipal boulevard from the back of curb to the front and/or flankage property line;
- (4) Where a non-residential development abuts any residential lot without an intervening lane, there shall be landscaping parallel to the property line of not less than 1.5 m (4.92 ft) in width throughout that shall make use of trees and shrubs to aid with visual screening between the lots;

- (5) As an alternative to the screening requirements that make use of trees and shrubs, as set out in this sub-section, a solid fence or wall may, at the discretion of the Development Authority, be provided along the lot lines that are adjacent to a residential lot; and
- (6) Should a solid fence or wall be permitted in lieu of trees and shrubs, for the sole purpose of screening a non-residential development from a residential lot, all other landscaping requirements in this sub-section and Section 67 (Landscaping) of this Schedule shall be met.

66.6 OUTDOOR LIGHTING

In addition to the requirements of Section 71 (Outdoor Lighting) of this Schedule, development in interface areas shall meet the following outdoor lighting requirements to the satisfaction of the Development Authority:

SECTION 67: LANDSCAPING

67.1 APPLICABILITY

The requirements of this section apply to new development on vacant lots and redevelopment of existing uses and are considered minimum requirements that may be added to depending on the other portions of this bylaw that may apply to each development proposal.

67.2 CLASSIFICATIONS

Landscaping is classified into soft and hard categories, based upon the characteristics of the materials and features used in each:

- (1) Soft landscaping is generally non-structural and consists of living organisms or materials derived from living organisms such as but not limited to trees, shrubs, grasses, native and non-native plants and flowers; and
- (2) Hard landscaping is generally structural and consists of non-living materials such as but not limited to brick, concrete, stamped concrete and asphalt, stone, paving blocks, and wood, but does not include un-stamped concrete or asphalt, or loose aggregate.

67.3 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- (1) Landscaping shall be to the satisfaction of the Development Authority;
- (2) Detailed landscaping plans may be required at the discretion of the Development Authority;
- (3) The quality and extent of the landscaping established on a site shall be the minimum standard to be maintained on the site for the life of the development;

- (3) The security either in part or as a whole shall be returned upon inspection of the completed landscaping by the Development Officer, depending on whether deficiencies have been identified;
- (4) Whatever portion of the security that represents the cost of the first year of maintenance may be withheld for a period determined by the Development Authority should the condition of the landscaping not meet the minimum requirements of this section; and
- (5) Should it be determined that any portion of the landscaping has not survived or was not completed in accordance with the requirements of this bylaw and/or any approved landscaping plan, the Development Authority shall use that portion of the security required to rectify the deficiency.

68.4 AMENITY SPACE

Amenity space may be categorized as private, common (accessible to all dwelling units in a mixed-use development) and public, on-site and off-site and can be indoors, partly or entirely outdoors, or any combination thereof depending on the development.

- (1) Private amenity space for vertical mixed-use development shall be:
 - (a) provided for each dwelling unit in the form of a balcony or rooftop space;

68.6 PARKING AND LOADING

- (1) Off-street parking shall be located in the rear and/or side yard and shall be screened from public rights-of-way and adjacent lots by landscaping and/or fencing;
- (2) Access for off-street parking shall be permitted one point of access from the street if there is no laneway and may only be permitted from the laneway if there is a laneway, to the discretion of the Development Authority;
- (3) Non-residential uses may be granted a partial or full waiver to the off-street parking requirements of Section 73 (Parking and Loading) of this Schedule, based on factors such as but not limited to the projected amount of vehicular traffic to be generated by the use, proximity to existing on-street and/or off-street parking, and the potential for required parking to be shared depending on business hours and the number of dwelling units; and

- (4) Should a reduction to minimum parking standards and/or shared parking be proposed, the Development Authority may require the submission of a Parking Management Plan, in accordance with Section 73, sub-section 73.2(5) and (6).

- (1) Development applications for mixed-use development shall be accompanied by landscaping plans prepared in accordance with Section 67 of this Schedule;
- (2) Trees and shrubs shall be planted in a manner that effectively screens mixed-use development from residential-only development. Trees and shrubs may be clustered or grouped within a side or rear yard to serve as a focal point for the landscape treatment but a minimum 1.5 metre landscaped strip shall be provided along the side and rear property lines and any other area of the lot that abuts a residential-only lot. The developer is encouraged to provide trees in a ratio of one tree per 35 square metres of total landscaped area provided on a site. As an alternative, shrubs may be planted for each 35 square metres of landscaped area provided on a site so long as the design incorporates trees along the property line;
- (3) Landscaping of main building accesses including shared accesses to non-residential and residential points of access shall include soft materials other than grasses and hard materials that together highlight the access;
- (4) On corner lots, in addition to the landscaping required in the front yard as identified in (2) above, the developer shall be responsible for landscaping the municipal boulevard from the back of curb to the front and/or flankage property line;
- (5) As an alternative to the screening requirements that make use of trees and shrubs, as set out in this sub-section, a solid fence or wall may, at the discretion of the Development Authority, be provided along the lot lines that abut a residential lot; and
- (6) Should a solid fence or wall be permitted in lieu of trees and shrubs, for the sole purpose of screening a mixed-use development from a residential lot, all other landscaping requirements in this sub-section and Section 67 (Landscaping) of this Schedule shall still apply.

- (3) Parking requirements for uses not listed shall be determined by the Development Authority, with regard for similar uses for which specific parking requirements are set;
- (4) Notwithstanding the minimum standards as set out in 73.2(2), the Development Authority may require fewer or more parking stalls based on factors that are specific to the proposed use including but not limited to:
- (a) the location of the use for which the off-street parking is required;
 - (b) adjacent land uses;
 - (c) existing on and off-street parking available for the proposed use;
 - (d) the intensity of the proposed use, including but not limited to factors such as estimated trip generation rates, based on information provided as a part of the Development Permit application process;
 - (e) the results of a comprehensive Parking Management Plan submitted by the applicant; and
 - (f) any other factors determined to be relevant by the Development Authority;
- (5) Should the minimum standards, as set forth in 73.2(2) of this section, or as determined by the Development Authority, not be met for a proposed use and/or shared parking is proposed, the Development Authority may require that the applicant submit a Parking Management Plan detailing, in a comprehensive manner, factors such as but not limited to parking supply, demand, utilization, prioritization, turnover, sharing, peak demand management, and pricing;

- (6) In consideration of a Parking Management Plan submitted by an applicant, the Development Authority may waive the minimum number of required parking stalls and/or allow the sharing of stalls between multiple uses, should the Plan provide sufficient merit to do so, as determined by the Development Authority;
- (7) Where a lot is used exclusively for off-street parking, that portion of the lot that would correspond to the front yard if a building was erected on the site, shall not contain any parking stalls and shall be landscaped to the satisfaction of the Development Authority;
- (8) The portion of a lot used for parking shall be:
 - (a) clearly delineated with curbs, landscaping, barriers or fences as required by the Development Authority;

- (10) Notwithstanding the above, pervious materials used for parking areas and loading spaces for the purpose of realizing a low-impact development may be accepted, to the discretion of the Development Authority and subsequent to review of proposed design by the City's engineer;
- (11) The provision of a parking area pursuant to the provisions of this bylaw shall be located on the same lot as the building or use in respect of which it is required unless otherwise approved by the Development Authority;
- (12) Should a parking area be proposed off-site from the lot on which the associated building(s) is located, the parking area shall be on an adjacent lot, or within 150 m (492.1 ft) of the lot on which the building(s) is situated;
- (13) When the requirements of sub-section 12 are required to be met:
 - (a) the developer(s) shall have an instrument registered on the title of the lot on which the parking area is to be situated indicating that the lot is to be used for off-site, off-street parking until such time that the developer finds a suitable alternative to the use of the off-site lot for the purposes of meeting the City's parking requirements;
 - (b) no more than 25 percent of the required parking may be shared or combined unless proof can be provided by the developer that additional shared parking will not result in shortages for the proposed use and other uses that may share or be proposed to share the parking area, to the discretion of the Development Authority;

- (14) Off-street parking requirements may be met by either providing the minimum number of stalls as set out in sub-section 73.2(2) or as determined by the Development Authority, or by the payment of money in-lieu of the stalls not provided. City Council shall determine the per stall amount of in-lieu payment;
- (15) Each parking stall shall be delineated to the satisfaction of the Development Authority including but not limited to painted lines, wheel stops and signage;
- (16) Wheel stops shall be placed so that the centre point of the wheel stop is not less than 0.6 m (2 ft) from the back of a sidewalk so that the minimum stall depth prescribed in this section is provided;

- (18) Parking stall designs proposing tandem or stacked parking to a maximum of two vehicles per stall may be approved by the Development Authority;
- (19) A parking and loading facility shall be located and constructed so that:
