SUBDIVISION GUIDELINES

CARDSTON COUNTY

SUBDIVISION GUIDELINES

1. The Municipal Planning Commission, acting as the Subdivision Authority, shall ensure that the proposed use intended for the subdivision complies with the present land use designation in the land use bylaw and is also consistent with any applicable statutory plan (i.e. municipal development plan) or area structure plan).
2. The Municipal Planning Commission may impose reasonable planning-related conditions to ensure that the subdivision is designed to meet or exceed municipal standards (i.e. development agreements, engineering studies, etc.).
3. The Municipal Planning Commission shall ensure, pursuant to section 654(1)(a) of the Municipal Government Act, Revised Statutes of Alberta 2000, Chapter M-26, that the land that is the subject of a subdivision application is suitable for the use which it is intended.
4. The Municipal Planning Commission cannot place erroneous or frivolous conditions on a subdivision to render an approval too costly to complete. Conditions must be placed on approvals in good faith and be planning-related.
5. Applications which do not comply with the land use bylaw and/or a statutory plan must be redesignated before a decision can be rendered by the Subdivision Authority.
6. All subdivision decisions, either approved or refused, must contain reasons for the decision.

8. The Municipal Planning Commission may request that Municipal and/or Environmental Reserve (easements) be provided by the applicant as a condition of a subdivision approval.
9. The Municipal Planning Commission shall ensure that every parcel created by a subdivision approval has legal access and/or egress or access satisfactory to the municipality.
10. The Municipal Council may establish subdivision policies, by resolution or bylaw, to provide direction to the Municipal Planning Commission when rendering decisions on subdivision applications (i.e. first parcel subdivision, fragmented parcels, etc.).
11. The Municipal Planning Commission shall endeavor to create subdivided parcels which meet or exceed the minimum lot requirements established in the respective land use district to ensure that multiple waivers are not required at the time a development application is received.
12. As part of its subdivision decision-making, the Municipal Planning Commission should consider, if applicable, the cumulative effect of the proposal on the surrounding lands.

13. The Municipal Planning Commission shall consider all comments received, prior to a decision, from pertinent referral agencies and/or adjacent landowners.
14. The Municipal Planning Commission must render a subdivision decision within 60 days of a completed application unless additional information is required to be provided and the applicant has agreed to a time extension.

APPENDIX F

REPORT REQUIREMENTS UNDER SECTION 23 OF THE WATER ACT

Report Requirements
under Section 23 of the Water Act
for Subdivision Development

Report Requirements for Subdivision Development Under Section 23 of the Water Act

Introduction

The Water Act (the "Act") came into force on January 1, 1999, replacing the Water Resources Act.

Under the Act, a statutory right exists for the diversion and use of water for household purposes. The statutory right is defined for a volume of water with use of up to 1,250 m³ of water per year and applies to a person who owns or occupies land that adjoins a river, stream, lake, or under which groundwater exists.

Section 23 of the Act and the regulations stipulate that where a proposed subdivision will result in six or more parcels of land within a quarter-section, a professional engineer, geologist, or geophysicist must submit a report to the local subdivision approving authority. This report must advise whether there is sufficient volume for each of the parcels to divert a volume of 1,250 cubic metres of water, while not interfering with other water users in the area. If the report is not submitted, each of the parcels will not have statutory right for household purposes except for those parcels in place prior to the subdivision. Residents in the new subdivision may divert and use water, however they will not have the benefit of the statutory right, which is the highest priority use under the Act.

This requirement addresses rural landowners' concerns during the extensive public consultation process regarding subdivision development and its impacts on existing diversions of water. The requirement does not apply to subdivisions that were either approved or applied for prior to January 1, 1999.

Report Guidelines

It is acknowledged that groundwater is the major water supply source for individual lots within a newly created subdivision, and that the majority of reports prepared in meeting Section 23 requirements will be with respect to groundwater. Surface water sources can be considered and where a surface water source is considered for meeting the household requirements, a report to meet the Section 23 requirement is necessary. The following guidelines address the requirements that are necessary to assess groundwater feasibility and impacts.

Groundwater conditions vary within the province, thus the level of investigations and testing is left to the hydrogeologist who is responsible for making decisions based on site-specific conditions. These guidelines do not attempt to deal with details of testing or with technical interpretation.

The report required under Section 23(3)(a) must be prepared and certified by a professional member of the Alberta Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta (APEGGA), whose area of competence is within the groundwater discipline.

The report should contain:

1. A field-verified survey of all the wells, springs and dugouts within an appropriate radius of the proposed subdivision test well. The survey data should be presented on plan(s) showing the quarter section and section-line grids and include the following:
 - (a) locations of all wells (including observation wells), test holes, springs and dugouts with the following information:
 - (i) names of licensees and registration holders under the Water Act and the allocation of each source of supply within the area of interest surrounding the proposed subdivision, and
 - (ii) ownership of municipal (central distribution source of supply) and private water wells, observation wells, test-holes, springs and dugouts.
 - (b) table(s) summarizing the location, ownership, and well depth and construction details (screened, open or slotted interval), depth to water, aquifer unit intervals, pump intake depth, the purpose, water use requirements and, if available, chemical analyses for sites identified in the survey. Dugout sizes and the flow rate of springs should also be included.
2. Schematic diagrams showing construction of the proposed production well(s)/test wells and any observation well(s).
3. Names of drilling contractors involved in data acquisition.
4. Lithologic and where available, geophysical logs, with aquifer zones indicated, of all holes drilled along with copies of any maps drawn showing the extent and thickness of the aquifer being tested and other aquifers.
5. Plans showing the location of buried valleys, delineation of depth to bedrock and the aerial distribution and extent (contact/subcrop), etc.

6. Details of drawdown and recovery in all test well(s) and observation well(s) together with and interpretation of the results including graphs of time-drawdown and distance-drawdown and all calculation performed. Copies of raw data must be included.
7. Cross sections of appropriate orientation and length through the proposed subdivision test well(s), neighbouring water wells, observation wells and test holes illustrating the correlation of the aquifer units and their non pumping water levels, and the location of springs, dugouts and water bodies when applicable.
8. Calculated cones of depression, neglecting recharge, after 1, 5 and 20 years of production at rates projected for the complete subdivision development.
9. Table of expected drawdown, neglecting recharge, after, 1, 5 and 20 years of production at the location of all wells within an appropriate distance of the proposed subdivision test well(s).
10. (1) Copies of all chemical analyses performed. Time and date of sampling must be recorded.
 (2) During the pumping test, at least one water sample collected in a sterilized container shall be analysed for the following constituents (time and date of sampling must be recorded):

CHEMICAL

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| - Ammonia – Nitrogen (mg/L) | - Nitrite and Nitrate (mg/L as N) |
| - Arsenic (mg/L) | - pH |
| - Calcium (mg/L) | - Phenols (mg/L) |
| - Chloride (mg/L) | - Sodium (mg/L) |
| - Colour (TCU) | - Sulphate (mg/L as SO ₄) |
| - Copper (mg/L) | - Sulphide (mg/L) |
| - Fluoride (mg/L) | - Total Dissolved Solids (mg/L) |
| - Dissolved Iron (mg/L) | - Total Alkalinity (mg/L as CaCO ₃) |
| - Lead (mg/L) | - Total Hardness (mg/L as CaCO ₃) |
| - Magnesium (mg/L) | - Total Kjeldahl Nitrogen (TKN) |
| - Manganese (mg/L) | - Total Phosphate (mg/L) |
| - Mercury (mg/L) | - Turbidity (NTU) |
| | - Zinc (mg/L) |

BACTERIOLOGICAL:

- Fecal Coliforms (mpn/mL)
 Total Coliforms (mpn/mL).

10. Analysis of the pumping test data by recognized hydrogeologic methods assessing
 - (a) the aquifer potential yield,
 - (b) aquifer(s) continuity within the drift or bedrock,
 - (c) aquifer parameters: Transmissivity (T), Storativity Coefficient (S),
 - (d) the potential impacts (drawdown) on area residents' water supplies as a result of the long-term diversion of groundwater from the aquifer interval(s), and
 - (e) groundwater/surface water interaction, if applicable.
11. Groundwater quality assessment
12. Statement(s) quantifying whether the diversion of 1,250 cubic metres of water per year for each household within the proposed subdivision
 - (a) has a significant adverse effect on household users, licensees or traditional agriculture users identified in the field-verified survey in existence prior to subdivision approval, and
 - (b) is consistent with an applicable approved water management plan.

Future wells proposed for subdivision may be completed in different aquifer units (zones). Thus assessment of potential interference should be done for each unit, assuming "worst case" situation.

The required report should be a culmination of a process that includes:

- Literature review:
 - (a) Alberta Research Council reports and maps (hydrogeological reconnaissance and bedrock topography, etc)
 - (b) Consultants' reports filed with the Groundwater Information Centre (submitted in support of groundwater diversion licences and other published reports)
 - (c) Groundwater quality of the aquifer unit(s) in which the neighbouring water wells are situated (based on available chemical analyses).

- Field verification of water wells within an appropriate radius of the proposed subdivision:
 - (a) The county or municipal district may have historic land ownership records to help verify the location of water wells and test holes.
 - (b) Information may be available from the Groundwater Information Centre (contains name of the landowner at the time the well was drilled).
 - (c) The field survey provides an opportunity to identify the location of old water well(s) for which no record is available, and any new well(s) for which the record(s) has yet to be submitted by the water well contractor. During the field-verified survey, additional water use information can be obtained from the landowner such as current usage, existing approval(s) under the Water Resources Act and whether the current landowner will be applying for registration under section 24 of the Act (up to 6250 cubic metres/year).
- A preliminary pumping test (up to two hours in length) for each test well if more than one aquifer unit is being considered
- Assessment of all available information to determine if further hydrogeologic investigations are warranted. If it is, a longer pumping test should be carried out on each test well to determine long-term yield and potential impact on the surrounding wells
- Selecting or drilling observation wells before a longer constant-rate pumping test(s) is carried out
- A constant-rate pumping test to meet, but not limited to, the following criteria:
 - (a) Rate shall not be less than the anticipated maximum production rate
 - (b) Maximum variation in pump rate shall be +/- 5%
 - (c) Pumping shall continue for a period of time sufficient to identify any limiting boundary conditions
 - (d) Recovery measurements are to be taken for at least the same length of time as the well was pumped
 - (e) Appropriate number of observation wells should be provided and monitored on the same schedule as the test well
 - (f) Pumped water should be disposed of in accordance with regulations

APPROVED SANITIZING SOLUTIONS

- BLEACH A chlorine solution of not less than 100 p.p.m. available chlorine is required at a temperature of not less than 45°C.
- Dilution of household bleach (chlorine) for disinfecting purposes:
- a) one Tablespoon per gallon of water
 - b) ½ ounce per gallon of water
 - c) ½ teaspoon per litre of water
 - d) 2 ml per litre of water
- (These examples are approximations based on 5% available chlorine or household bleach)*
- If used for disinfecting surfaces the diluted bleach (chlorine) should be prepared fresh on a daily basis. Store in a spray bottle labelled accordingly, and keep the solution, as all other chemicals away from children. The use of bleach is inexpensive and effective, however, bleach is corrosive.
- QUATS A Quaternary ammonium compound (QUATS) having a strength of at least 200 p.p.m. is required at a temperature of not less than 45°C.
- QUATS are mild to the skin, heat stable (strength stays the same from the day dilution is made), do not dull finishes on floors nor corrode metals, however, are more expensive.
- Examples include:

| a) Deosan | e) Micro Quat | h) Pursue |
| b) Air X-78 | f) Proclean 130 | i) Lemon Tree |

| d) Germicidal multi purpose cleaner | | |
- IODINE An iodine solution containing at least 25 p.p.m. available iodine is required at a temperature of not less than 45°C.
- Commonly formulated as an iodophor it has quick microbial action, is relatively non-toxic, non-irritating and stable. Iodine may stain porous and plastic surfaces and is relatively expensive.

ALBERTA BUILDING CODE REQUIREMENTS

The following are excerpts from Alberta Labour “Bed and Breakfast Accommodation and the Alberta Building Code”, January 1996.

INTRODUCTION

This document is for individuals wishing to convert their single family dwelling into Bed and Breakfast accommodations.

These guidelines assume there will be a maximum of eight (8) guests plus the permanent residents of the dwelling. If this is exceeded, then the bed and breakfast establishment is to be treated as a motel or hotel, and other more stringent requirements of the Alberta Building Code will apply.

GENERAL

It is recommended that a general overview of the dwelling be conducted by a Building Safety Codes Officer to review the safety of the dwelling in such areas as structural, stability, stairs, guards & handrails, heating system, etc.

If any renovation or construction is needed to operate a Bed and Breakfast, safety permits for building, electrical, plumbing and gas may be required. Contact your local building authority or the nearest Alberta Labour Office.

REGIONAL HEALTH AUTHORITY

No person is to operate a Bed and Breakfast establishment unless the owner has received written approval from the Regional Health Authority.

BEDROOMS

No cooking facilities are allowed in sleeping rooms or suites.

WINDOWS

Each bedroom is to have at least one exterior window, (unless an exterior door is provided), openable from the inside without the use of tools or special knowledge. It is to have an unobstructed opening of not less than 380 mm (15 in.) in any direction and 0.35 m² (3.76 sq. ft.) in area.

Where a window opens into a window well, a clearance of at least 550 mm (22 in.) is to be provided in front of the window. Where the sash swings toward the window well, the operation of the sash will not reduce the clearance in a manner that would restrict escape in an emergency.

The window glass area for each bedroom is to be a minimum 5% of the floor area.

SMOKE ALARMS

At least one permanently wired smoke alarm is required on each floor level, including basements, and between each sleeping room and the rest of the dwelling.

It is also recommended that smoke alarms, either battery or hardwired, be located in each bedroom.

Where two or more alarms are required, they are to be interconnected so that the activation of one alarm will cause all alarms to sound.

FIRE ALARMS

If sleeping accommodation is provided for more than 10 persons (including the guests and family) a fire alarm system is to be provided throughout the dwelling.

Fire alarm systems are to be installed in conformance with CAN/ULC-S524-M, "Standard for Installation of Fire Alarm Systems" and tested to ensure satisfactory operation in conformance with CAN/ULC-S537-M, "Standard for the Verification of Fire Alarm Systems."

A certificate of verification is to be obtained from a Certified Fire Alarm technician, who does not work for the installation company, to ensure satisfactory operation of the system.

EXTINGUISHERS

At least one Class 2A-10 BC portable extinguisher is to be installed on each floor level of the dwelling and an additional one is to be installed in the kitchen area.

EMERGENCY PLAN

An emergency escape plan for the occupants of the dwelling unit is to be prepared by the owner and be acceptable by the local fire department. The guests are to be kept informed of the plan. For further information contact your local fire department or refer to the emergency plan section of the Alberta Fire Code.

HEATING AND VENTILATION

The heating system is to be capable of maintaining an indoor air temperature of 22°C at the outside winter design temperature.

The mechanical ventilation system is to have a capacity to exhaust inside air and to introduce outside air at the rate of not less than 0.5 air changes per hour.

COOKING EQUIPMENT

A domestic stove and oven complete with a range hood is acceptable for food preparation. If a commercial grill and/or fryer is proposed, the kitchen ventilation system is to be designed, constructed and installed to conform to NFPA 96, "Installation of Equipment for the removal of Smoke and Grease-Laden Vapours from Commercial Cooking Equipment."

PLUMBING FACILITIES

An accessible adequate supply of potable water, suitable sanitary facilities and plumbing fixtures are to be provided for the occupants in the dwelling.

SWIMMING POOLS & HOT TUBS

Swimming pool and/or hot tub facilities made available to guests are to comply with section 7.3 of the Alberta Building Code and they must also meet the requirements of the Swimming Pool Regulations under the Public Health Act.

For further information, please contact your Local Building Authority or the nearest Alberta Labour Building Safety Office.
